II  If a request for basis boost is included in the application, (see QAP Section 5.6), a detailed narrative to include comprehensive reasoning and justification to support that the development resides within an eligible area is required to be given consideration by the Association for the boost;

III  Narrative description of the development;

IV  Market Study and Feasibility Requirements. A current (no more than 6 months old) Market Study is required which recommends and justifies the overall market area demand for the proposed rental units. Sponsors will be required to obtain their market study from a provider who is listed on the Association’s Approved Market Study Provider’s list.

For acquisition/rehabilitation developments, a previously completed MAI appraisal can be used to establish market feasibility provided: 1) the appraisal report is no more than six months old, and 2) the appraisal addresses the development’s ability to sustain occupancy at 93% or greater.

An update will be allowed up to six months after the date of the original market study or appraisal; provided that it doesn’t extend more than 12 months beyond the original date of the appraisal or market study

At a minimum, the market study should include:

* A statement of the competence of the market study provider, detailing education and experience of the primary author and including statement of non-interest;

* A site visit and description of the proposed site and neighborhood, including physical attributes of site, surrounding land uses, and proximity to community amenities or neighborhood features including shopping, healthcare, schools, and transportation;

* A map and photos of the subject site and surroundings showing location of community services;

* An overview of local economic conditions, including employment by sector, list of major employers, and labor force employment and unemployment trends over past 5-10 years;

* A description of the proposed development, detailing proposed unit mix (number of bedrooms, bathrooms, square footage, proposed rents, Area Median Income (AMI) level, utility allowances and any utilities included in rent), proposed unit features and community amenities, and target population characteristics such as age restrictions and/or special needs populations;

* Demographic analysis of the number of households in the market area that are part of the target market (i.e., family, senior, etc.), income-eligible, and can afford to pay the rent, including a projected household base at placed in service date;

* Geographic definition and analysis of the market area, including description of methodology used to define the market area and map of market area including proposed site;
* Analysis of household sizes and types in the market area, including households by tenure, income, and persons per household;

* A description of comparable developments in the market area, including any rent concessions these developments presently offer;

* A description of rent levels and vacancy rates of comparable properties in the market area, segmented by property type (market rate, Housing Credit, deep subsidy, or HOME) and with rents adjusted to account for utility differences and concessions or other incentives. Such description should include all existing Housing Credit developments in the primary market area and any planned additions to rental stock including recently approved Housing Credit developments;

* Expected market absorption of the proposed rental housing, including capture/penetration rate analysis of target populations; and

* A description of the effect on the market area, including the impact on Housing Credit and other existing affordable rental housing.

In addition, please insure that the market feasibility report specifically addresses the following:

* Market and affordable housing unit demand currently needed, as well as the anticipated need at the time that the proposed development will be completed. Should the study or update not provide a definitive conclusion regarding new unit market demand, the housing sponsor will fail the market study threshold;

* Comparable rental housing includes rental units within the targeted market area available at rental terms and conditions substantially similar to those being proposed. The term “developments” may include non-traditional rental units (whether subsidized or not), if such units represent a material percentage of the rental market.

* Affordability analysis that compares proposed LIHTC rents with comparable market rate rents. If the market study or appraisal does not conclude specific comparable market rents, but rather provides a broad range of rents, the Association will establish affordability by using the low end of the range;

* Market composition between homeowners and renters;

* Market and affordable developments in the market area which are under construction and/or in the pipeline to be developed – with anticipated dates of completion and availability to the public;

* Site analysis and opinion, including an analysis of how the site will enhance or detract from development marketability. Analyst must visit the proposed site;

* If there are no local comparable units, the market study or appraisal should utilize comparables from other nearby communities.

* If the proposed development is designed for, and dedicated to, a targeted market segment (i.e., elderly or senior) the market study or appraisal will be required to provide a targeted feasibility analysis.

* Proposed developments that contain commercial space must provide an evaluation in the market study or appraisal which substantiates the commercial demand, vacancy rate(s), and lease rate(s) for comparable commercial space within the market area in which the development is proposed.

If HOME or Housing Trust Funds are requested, additional market study and appraisal requirements for these programs may be found in Exhibit M of the HOME Investment Partnerships & Housing Trust Fund Programs Administrative Plan.
