

Exhibit E- HOME Maximum Homebuyer Sales Price Limits

The most current HOME maximum sales price limits are available on the IHFA website HOME page at <https://www.idahohousing.com/federal-programs/home-program>

HOME maximum sales price limits are established by HUD-Division of Community Planning and Development. This limits are updated at least annually by HUD. The limits are established for "existing" housing and "new construction (certificate of occupancy issued within previous 12 months)" housing based on the number of units in the structure, i.e. single unit, duplex, triplex, fourplex.
