- Voluntary Sales Disclosures • Uniform Relocation Assistance • Environmental Review
 - Seller and Buyer Rights and Responsibilities

When Federal funds may be used to acquire, construct, or rehabilitate this property, the Federal Highway Administration's Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition for Federal and Federally-assisted Programs (URA) (49 CFR 24.101(b)(i-iv)) and HUD's Environmental Review requirements (24 CFR Part 58) will apply.

Seller Name(s): _____

Buyer Name: _____, is interested in acquiring the property located at (property address): _____.

!Instructions The following information must be disclosed to the property owner(Seller) before or at the time the initial purchase offer is made. Failure to do so may jeopardize the use of the Federal funds.

Buyer and Seller(s)/Agent- Buyer and Seller are required to sign and date the Voluntary Sale Disclosures document (below) prior to, or on the date the purchase agreement is signed.

If a third party, i.e. agent is representing the Buyer, agent should be properly advised of Federal requirements, their importance, and the potential consequences if not followed.

! Instructions Buyer and Seller must initial, sign and date prior to or at the time the purchase contract is signed.

• Voluntary Sale Disclosures

The primary purpose of the Real Property Acquisition regulations for Federally-assisted activities is to protect private property owners and occupants. The requirements at 49 CFR Part 24 Subpart B-Real Property Acquisition apply to any acquisition of real property except an acquisition by an agency/person that does not have authority to acquire by eminent domain, if before the seller enters into a contract for sale, the following conditions are disclosed prior to the initial purchase offer.

Buyer and Seller initials required

- This sale is voluntary
- This sale is between a willing buyer and a willing seller
- The buyer does not have the power of eminent domain
- The buyer will make every reasonable effort to acquire your property expeditiously through negotiations only
- Negotiations may result in a purchase price that equals, exceeds, or is less than the estimated market value (see section 2 for additional information regarding estimated market value)
- No specific site or property needs to be acquired as a part of an intended or planning project area where all or substantially all of the properties in the area need to be acquired within a specific timeframe
- Buyer must inform seller of what buyer believe to be the estimated market value of the property
- In the case where there is an existing option or contract, the seller must be provided the opportunity to withdraw from the option or contract after this information is provided

This letter is to inform _____ [Seller] that _____ [Buyer] would like to purchase the property located at _____ [Property Address]. A description of property to be acquired (include any buildings that are considered a part of the property) _____

_____ The Buyer is prepared to pay $_____ for clear title under the conditions described in the attached purchase and sales agreement.

Upon acceptance of the purchase offer, the property shall be appraised to establish fair market value. The owner/owner's agent will be given the opportunity to accompany the appraiser during the appraiser's inspection. If the appraised value differs from the purchase offer, the owner has the right to withdraw from the proposed sale.

Negotiations may result in a purchase price that is for the amount of the original estimated fair market value, an amount that exceeds it, or a lesser amount.

If the negotiated sales price is less than appraised market value, is the seller willing to donate the difference to affordable housing, to help provide HOME Match? [If the Seller wishes to discount the sales price below appraised value as a donation to affordable housing, please include the "Acknowledgement of a Discounted Price" Form #2 with this form.]

The Seller acknowledges that he/she has received notice of the fair market value and chooses to donate a portion of the value to the project by selling the property at a lower price as a donation to affordable housing in the amount of $_____.

Because federal funds are anticipated in the purchase of this property, the following must be disclosed:

- (1) This sale is voluntary, neither the buyer nor the seller has the power of eminent domain or condemnation;
- (2) The buyer cannot acquire this property if negotiations fail to result in an amicable agreement;
- (3) Since the purchase is voluntary and considered an arm's length transaction, the owner(s) is not eligible for relocation benefits, or any other assistance under the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 (URA);
- (4) The buyer will make every reasonable effort to acquire the property expeditiously by negotiation; and
- (5) The property is not part of an intended, planned, or designated project area where all or substantially all of the property within the area is to be acquired within specific time limits;
- (6) No specific site or property needs to be acquired, although the person or agency (buyer) may limit their search for alternative sites to a geographic area;
- (7) If the Buyer wishes to purchase more than one site within a general geographic area, all owners will be treated similarly.

THIS IS NOT A MOVE-OUT NOTICE

Dear _____(Current Tenant(s))

On _____(date), _____(buyer’s name)entered into an agreement with _____(seller’s name) to purchase the property you currently occupy at _____(tenant address)

When the negotiations are complete and the sale of the property is final, certain improvements may be made to your unit. Because part of the funding may come from federal sources, this notice is required to inform you of your rights under federal law.

If, when the new owner acquires the property, you are required to move out of the entire project, you may be eligible for relocation assistance under the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended.

If the property is acquired and you are required to move from the entire property and are eligible for relocation assistance, you will be notified of advisory services, which will include referrals to replacement housing.

If you are required to move from the entire property a 90-day advance written notice of the date you will be required to move out must be issued.

If you are required to move from the property, you may be eligible for expenses as defined under the Uniform Relocation Act and may be eligible for financial assistance to help you rent a replacement home. This unit must be comparable to your current residence

Please note, if anyone moves in with you after you’ve received this notice, your assistance may be reduced.

DO NOT MOVE AT THIS TIME

You are urged to continue to pay your monthly rent and meet all other tenant obligations. Failure to do so may be good cause for eviction and a loss of relocation assistance.

I understand this is not a notice to vacate the unit.

SAMPLE ELIGIBILITY FOR RELOCATION ASSISTANCE LETTER

Dear Tenant:

On _____(date), you were notified of the possible plans to _____ (identify project. On _____(date) this project was approved. This is a notice of eligibility for relocation assistance.

To carry out the project, it is necessary for you to relocate. However, you do not need to move now. When it is required, you will receive a written notice at least 90 days in advance of the move out date. At that time you are entitled to relocation payments and other assistance in accordance with the Federal regulations implementing the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended (URA).

The effective date of this notice is _____ (date of closing). You are now eligible for relocation assistance, including:

Counseling and Other Advisory Services

Payment for Moving Expenses. You may choose either (1) a payment for your actual reasonable moving and related expenses, or (2) if you prefer, a fixed payment of $_____ based upon a schedule established by the Department of Transportation.

Replacement Housing Payment. You may be eligible for a replacement housing payment to rent or buy a replacement home. This payment is based on several factors, including the cost of a "comparable replacement home," the monthly rent and average utility costs for your present home, and 30 percent of your average gross household income.

Sincerely,

SAMPLE NOTICE OF NON-DISPLACEMENT LETTER

Dear Tenant:

On ___ (date) ___, ___ (buyer) ___ entered into an agreement with ___ (seller) ___ to purchase the property you currently occupy at _____ (address) _____. When negotiations are complete and the sale is final, certain improvements may/will be made.

This notice is to inform you that you will not be displaced from this project. Therefore, you are urged not to move anywhere at this time. (If you elect to move for reasons of your own or are evicted for good cause, you will not be provided relocation assistance.)

You are able to occupy your present apartment (or another suitable, decent, safe, and sanitary apartment in the same building). You must comply with standard lease terms and conditions.

If you are required move out of your apartment temporarily so that rehabilitation can be completed, suitable housing will be provided during that period of time. You will be reimbursed for reasonable additional expenses, including moving costs and any increase in housing costs.

Because federal funds are involved, you are protected by the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended. If your rent is increased, your new rent (including the estimated average monthly utility costs) will not exceed 30% of the gross income of all adult members of your household.

Again, we urge you not to move. When the sale is final, please be assured we will make every effort to accommodate your needs. If you have any questions, please contact
