

LOCAL COMPETITION NOTICE

YOUTH HOMELESSNESS DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM (YHDP) GRANT

The Youth Homelessness Demonstration Program (YHDP) is a Housing and Urban Development (HUD) program, designed to address youth and young adult homelessness. In October 2024, HUD announced Idaho Housing's $3.8 million YHDP award. As the primary recipient of this award, Idaho Housing is announcing a local competition to identify and select subrecipient providers.

Interested applicants are expected to submit a notice of intent to apply by June 23 and a complete project application by August 15.

If your organization is interested in administering a YHDP project, please review the full announcement and the attached documents in their entirety.

Thank you for your partnership during the planning process and your interest in administering a YHDP project.

Sincerely,

Anji Armagost | Grant Coordinator
